

Lawrence Albert was born October 23, 1883. He married Esther Melissa Lindsay of Lake Creek on November 1, 1905. They lived on the old "Rell" place on Daniels Creek for several years. On January 14, 1914, they and the John Rooker family went to Allion, Idaho. Albert ran sheep and cattle in close cooperation with Will Broadhead. He was called on a mission to the Eastern States in 1920 and while gone the depression came, leaving him broke and heavily in debt. He returned home and in April, 1921, moved back to the old farm in Daniel. Following an accident and long illness, he died September 21, 1921. They had seven sons and one daughter. 845
